

MARTHA STEWART Living

GREAT WHITE Rieslings take Washington: This German grape, which thrives in cool climates, has become the Evergreen State's most harvested varietal. The result is wonderful, affordable wines. Try Kung Fu Girl Riesling from Walla Walla. Our kitchen staff did and loved it, praising its food-friendly qualities. With hints of Asian pear and a playful label, it's an ideal picnic companion.

$12, kvintners.com

KEY LIME DAIQUIRI, PAGE 69,
AND SHRIMP COCKTAIL, PAGE 144

AUGUST 2009
$4.99 USA (CAN $5.99)
marthastewart.com